LIBERTY SHIP AT FORT

The SS Jeremiah O'Brien is a World War 2 cargo ship, just like the one which tied up at Fort Mason piers 40 years ago. Unlike her 2,750 sisters—gone down in service, scrapped, sold for modification or sunk as fish reefs—the O'Brien has been preserved as a memorial to the Americans who built, supplied, repaired, sailed and defended Liberty Ships and as an educational facility in the form of a floating museum.

Launched in 1943, manned by merchant seamen and defended by Navy Armed Guard, the O'Brien participated in the Normandy invasion and later made voyages to South America and Australia. In 1946, she was laid up in the National Defense Reserve Fleet, Suisun Bay, California.

Dedicated volunteers reactivated the ship and in 1979, she sailed out of mothballs under her own steam. After initial restoration at Bethlehem Steel Shipyard, San Francisco, the O'Brien made her first Annual Seamen's Memorial Cruise (May 21, 1980) and entered her home berth, Pier 3 East, Fort Mason Center.

Today, the O'Brien is open to visitors and for volunteer restoration work Monday through Thursday, and Saturday (9am-3pm), and with steam up on monthly Open Ship weekends (request schedule). Once a year she sails the Bay, carrying some 800 passengers who want to "ride history." The 1982 cruise date is Saturday, May 15th. For further information call 4413101.

FRIENDS BENEFITS

You are invited to attend the "Architecture 1980: The Presence of the Past" exhibit in Pier II, from May 20 through July 29. Hours are 10AM—6PM, Tues. through Sun. Project Director Virginia Westover states that "beyond its sheer magnificence, the exhibition relates to challenges in today's architecture and cities, and is especially timely for San Francisco." See the article on this page for more information about the show. "Friends" will receive $1. off the general admission price.

On May 17, 1982, from 6-9PM, a party will be held to open the exhibit and to honor Phillip Johnson, the well-known architect. Admission to this gala event is $25. per person. Proceeds will benefit Fort Mason Foundation. A "Friend of the Fort" individual membership is included in the ticket price, so if you haven't yet become a "Friend," join us now and enjoy an exciting party as well as a year subscription to the Calendar and discounts to many interesting, entertaining and educational activities.

The San Francisco Models Guild is giving our "Friends" a $1. discount to their Modeling Marathon on Saturday, May 22, from 10AM-4:30PM. Come and enjoy a whole day of drawing. See the Calendar for more information about this event.

MEXICAN MUSEUM OPENS 5/5

The Mexican Museum is the only North American museum dedicated to the art of Mexico and the contemporary Mexican American. Through our exhibition and education programs the museum provides the San Francisco Bay Area, and its numerous visitors, with the unique opportunity to study and experience the art, history, and culture of Mexico and the Mexican American.

The museum has grown steadily since its opening in 1975, and is now in the process of moving to a much needed, larger space here in Fort Mason's building D. The Administrative, Curatorial, and Education Departments have already moved and the new gallery space will open on "Cinco de Mayo" (May 5th) with a gala fundraising reception. The reception will be from 6-9pm and will include mariachi music, refreshments, and a door prize. Admission is $25 in advance, or $35 at the door; 1982 museum members of $50 or more are entitled to one free ticket.

At Fort Mason, new galleries will be in the southern end of the 1st floor of Building D, and will provide the museum with twice as much floor space as the prior location. The remodeling is now underway and we look forward to having gallery space to exhibit the permanent collections. The opening exhibition will feature selections from the museum's collections of Pre-Hispanic, Colonial and Folk Art. Also, there will be an extensive survey of contemporary Mexican American and Mexican art.

"Strada Novissima" at the 1980 Venice Biennale

ARCHITECTURE SHOW COMING TO PIER 2

Imagine yourself walking down a fanciful street a full city block in length, then finding yourself in a lively Italian Market place after which you enter a gallery. You have in a nutshell the setting of Pier 2 when "Architecture 1980: The Presence of the Past" takes place from May 20 through July 29. First exhibited at the 1980 Venice Biennale and coming here from a showing in Paris, this international architecture exhibit showcases work by over 60 prominent architects whose work is included in the most current trend in architecture, that of Post Modernism.

The principle focus of the exhibit is the Strada Novissima (literally "Newest Street"), an actual street composed of soaring facades, each designed by 21 individual architects. After a walk down the Strada Novissima, patrons will enter the Italian Market Place featuring a bar, a restaurant, and food presented by some of the city's most popular Italian vendors—North Beach's popular Caffe Roma, Vinvande, and Vivoli's of Italy ice cream. Four facades newly commissioned and done by San Francisco architects will be in this area. The exhibit concludes with the International Gallery including two-dimensional exhibition material by over 40 additional architects.

The Sponsor of the exhibit is a new group, the Friends of the Biennale, which is working in cooperation with Fort Mason Foundation, the Italian Cultural Institute of San Francisco, the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, and the American Institue of Architects-San Francisco Chapter. Support for the exhibit has come from Campeau Corporation California, Southern Pacific Company, Italian Line, and the San Francisco Hotel Tax Fund.

General admission is $4 and seniors, juniors and students pay $3. Friends of the Fort will recieve a $1 discount. Hours are 10am to 6pm Tuesday through Sunday. A party to open the exhibit and honoring architect Philip Johnson will be held Monday evening, May 17, and the proceeds will benefit Fort Mason Foundation. For further information call the Friends of the Biennale, 673-4722.

The Fort Mason Foundation, a privately-funded nonprofit organization, is engaged in renovating surplus military buildings at Fort Mason, headquarters of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area. The Foundation administers Fort Mason Center which is located on the Bay between Aquatic Park and the Marina Green. In less than three years, the Center has become a national model for low-cost community-responsive urban parks.

We invite you to bring your conferences, classes, performances, meetings or benefits to Fort Mason. Space for suitable activities is available for a nominal daily or hourly fee. Enjoy the pleasure of teaching, working, or performing in this unusual national park location. Call 441-5706 for booking appointments and information.
